

Zero Waste Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

1. A powerful greenhouse gas produced when food begins to rot in a landfill
5. Elements or compounds that organisms must take in to live, grow, and reproduce
6. Animals that spread pollen from flower to flower
10. The ore in which aluminum comes from
11. How much waste San Francisco aims to produce by the year 2020
14. Water that leaches through the garbage in a landfill
15. Made naturally or without chemicals
16. This group is composed of fungus, bacteria, and invertebrates
19. The result of too many heat trapping gasses in our Earth's atmosphere
20. This non-renewable resource is used to make plastic

DOWN

2. _____ digestion is when organic material breaks down without oxygen, creating methane
3. The natural home of a group of plants or animals
4. A community of living and non-living organisms that live in natural balance
7. These resources come from nature and are used or turned into all the things we need and want
8. Using resources in a way which ensures their availability long into the future
9. The _____ station is where San Francisco's garbage goes for one day before it is taken to the landfill
12. A type of waste that is poisonous and should not go into the blue, green, or trash bins
13. _____ digestion occurs in nature with plenty of oxygen, creating healthy compost
17. One of the three "R's" meaning to use less stuff
18. Something introduced into nature that causes negative effects on the natural environment