Compost, It's the Law Compostaje, Es la Ley

California Senate Bill (SB 1383) "Short-lived Climate Pollutants" goes into effect on January 1, 2022. This California state law requires a 75% reduction of organic material disposed of in landfills and a 20% increase in edible food recovery by 2025. Landfilled organic matter creates methane, a powerful greenhouse gas, that causes climate change. We must all do our part at home and at work to slow climate change by recovering edible food for hungry people and composting our food scraps, yard debris, and soiled paper instead of placing them in the landfill.

La Ley del Senado de California (SB1383) "Contaminantes Climáticos de Corta Duración" tomara efecto el 1 de enero de 2022. Todos debemos hacer nuestra parte, en la casa y en el trabajo, para frenar el cambio climático recuperando alimentos comestibles para las personas que padecen hambre y compostando los restos de comida en lugar de tirarlos al vertedero de basura.

How much water should I use to clean containers?

It is very important that containers are clean and dry in order to ensure they get recycled. To save water, try reusing dirty dishwasher to rinse containers and wipe away excess food residue with a used napkin. It is OK if containers have a light residue - like this peanut butter jar.

We haul them to our sorting facility, where paper, plastic, glass, cardboard, and metals are separated out and baled. Our plastics, glass, and metals are all sold to California buyers who recycle them in the state. Paper and cardboard bales are sold to mills in the Pacific Northwest as well as various countries in Asia.

Where do my recyclables go?

Rigid plastic containers (i.e. bottles, tubs, jugs, or cups), can be recycled in your blue bin. These are plastic numbers 1, 2, and 5. Plastics that are not containers (i.e. bags, straws, utensils, or Styrofoam) should go in the garbage bin. "Compostable" plastics should go in the garbage as well. It's best to try to find alternatives for the plastics in your life.

What should I do with plastics?
